Travel Back to The Future with Catherine Duc's New Single, 'Remember When...'

(NewswireJet) February 5, 2021 – Catherine Duc, a GRAMMY-nominated composer, multi-instrumentalist, and producer, has announced the debut of her latest single, 'Remember When...' on digital streaming platforms and online radio stations worldwide. A modern Nu 80s take on classic 80s Pop, 'Remember When...' features captivating melodies, lush arrangements and sparkling production that have brought Catherine critical acclaim.

A powerful collaboration, 'Remember When...' features Swedish guitarist Jonas Isacsson, best known for his work playing with iconic band Roxette, and is mastered by GRAMMY-winning engineer Randy Merrill who has worked with artists like Adele and Lady Gaga.

Classically trained but with electronica savvy, Catherine takes listeners back to the future with this influential blend of Nu 80s, Synthwave and Retrowave styles.

'Remember When...' is available now on digital streaming platforms, including Spotify and Apple Music. Catherine's music is available for synchronization licensing for film, television, in-store airplay and other opportunities.
